

Located on Gurley Street, and just a block from Prescott's famed Whiskey Row, today's Gurley St. Grill rose from the ashes of the Mulvenon Saloon, a wood frame structure originally located on the site that was destroyed in the Great Fire of 1900. Much of the brick used to rebuild the present-day structure was salvaged from the rubble, and one can still see the soot-blackened bricks scattered throughout the building.

Locally owned by the Peterson-Burge family, today's Gurley St. Grill serves the finest quality food and beverages in a friendly, relaxed and informal atmosphere. The upstairs rooms now serve as private dining rooms to accommodate both large and small parties, banquets and meetings. Uncompromising quality, service and a sophisticated menu has made the Gurley St. Grill a don't miss destination in Northern Arizona.
